Evergreen monoecious trees. Short shoots absent; leaves borne directly on stems, linear, flattened. Male flowers in the leaf axils on undersurface of young branches. Cones large, ripening in the first year, the female of a bright colour. Male cones ovoid or cylindricoblong, with yellow or red anthers. Seeds falling away together with the ovuliferous scales; cone axis persistent.